ALCOA PLANT SET FOR CONSTRUCTION

SCHOOL TAX ELECTION SCHEDULED FOR OCTOBER 2

Parents Of Curry School Children Vote To Come Into Cameron School

An important school election is scheduled for October 2, according to W. T. Hanes.

Since the consolidation of the Curry district which also included Belmena, Walkers Creek and Vogelsang, with the Cameron School District, an entirely new school district has been created. A school tax will have to be voted and equalized.

The tax rate will be the same for the Cameron district as in previous years, 75 cents. There will be NO increase whatsoever. This is a legal procedure that must be taken care of in order to get adequate money to operate the schools.

The Cameron School Board at a called meeting Friday, September 14, announced the election and it will be held at the City Hall.

Voters of the Minerva, Hoyte and Salem will also vote at the City Hall, Mr. Hanes added.

Mr. Hanes and A. W. Loughmiller met with the parents of the children attending school at Curry Monday night at the Curry School house. The vote was 12-6 favoring the school children at Curry to come into the Cameron school, Hanes revealed.

This transaction will be come effective Wednesday, September 19, according to Mr. Hanes.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Hudson, teachers at Curry, will teach in the Cameron schools. Miss Johns, head of the room at Curry will be employed in the Ada Henderson Cafeteria.

Over twenty pupils enrolled in the Curry School this year.

Yoemen Take Caldwell Hornets To Cleaning With 33-0 Score

The Cameron Yoemen swamped the Caldwell Hornets by a decisive victory of 33-0, scoring three touchdowns in the second quarter and one in both the third and fourth quarters.

After a scoreless first quarter in which Caldwell on a blocked punt carried the ball to the Yoemen 8 yard line but the Yoemen line stiffened and the ball went over on downs. After an exchange of punts the Hornets brought the ball back down to the 1 yd line, going over on downs.

From this point on it was the Yoemen's game. On Logan's punt, Odom fumbled, Cameron recovering on their own 20 yard line. On several line bucks by Ray Thompson, Glenn Rosenberg and Batte moved the ball down to the Hornet 33 yard line. ON the next play Eddy Lankford made a first down on the 17, being stopped hard by J. Addison, Hornet ace back. Rosenberg on a hand off from Eldon Batte slashed over right guard was hit on the 8 yard line, fumbled and recovered the ball over the goal line for the first TD of the night. Rosenberg added the PAT, making the count 7-0, early in the second quarter.

J. Symank, also a fleet Hornet halfback took Rosenbergs kick-off and returned to his own 32. After an incomplete pass, Addison chalked up a first down for the Hornets to the 44. On three tries at the Yoemen line, Caldwell netted only 6 yards and forced to punt. Rosenberg took the kick on his 20 yard line, side stepped three Hornets to his 40, picked up his blockers at mid-field, where he was in the clear at the 40 yard line for a sensational run back of 80 yards. The play was called back as the Yoemen were caught clipping.

After a try at the line Batte passed to Lincoln Mondrick on his 30, tucked the ball away and scampered 70 yards for the score. Rosenberg again added the extra point.

The Hornets failed to make a first down on three tries and Symank punted to Lankford on his 30 and returned to the Caldwell 22, finally being hauled down from behind by Odom. Lankford did a nice job of broken field running on this particular jaunt. Batte lost 9 yards attempting to pass. The Hornets defense tightened and held the Yoemen with the ball going over on downs.

The Caldwell team came to life making two first downs. Symank was hit hard on the next play by Mondrick and fumbled, Batte recovering. The Yoemen were penalized on the first play for back-field in motion. Batte passed to Rosenberg for 15 yards. On the identical play, Batte heaved a pass over the goal line to Rosenberg for the third touchdown making the count 20-0. Rosenberg missed the try for extra point.

Odom returned Rosenberg's (turn to page eight)

Aggies Developing Passing Attack As Workouts Continue

Coach Ray George's No. 1 objective of developing an acceptable passing attack for the Texas Aggies loomed as a definite possibility near the conclusion of the second week of a two-day workouts.

Team conditioning has become of secondary importance now that most of the players have rounded into their weights of last season, and George and his staff are putting increased stress on throwing and catching the football, and blocking for the passer. If A & M develops this passing game to equal the great running game of last year, most of George's worries will be over.

14,500 Bales New Cotton Received Here As Harvest Nears Completion

A total of 14,500 bales of new cotton has been received at the Cameron Compress, according to P. W. Davis, manager.

All of this cotton was raised and ginned in Milam County and from all indications the 1951 cotton harvest is almost complete.

The majority of the migratory laborers that were responsible for the larger percentage of the 1951 harvest, have left for other areas of the state.

The labor shed that was erected earlier in the season has been very helpful and merchants and businessmen in the city have profited considerably by its construction as it has been a vital factor in encouraging laborers to come into this area. The Cooperation among farmers and merchants in building this needed structure has been very essential.

The Chamber of Commerce and Farm Bureau collaborated in the construction of the shed and businessmen are realizing the advantage of this important movement that begun last July to have it completed by the harvest season.

Other counties that surround Milam have built similar sheds in previous years which have been instrumental in bringing additional business and income into the counties. Worthwhile projects of this kind are always an asset to any community.

Lone Star has reproduced it to the last detail for State Fair visitors.

Alcoa Construction Scheduled To Get Underway According to Poage

Judge Dan Tyson notified the Cameron Herald Thursday afternoon that Congressman Poage had telephoned him that the National Production Authority had approved rapid amortization for the Alcoa plant in Milam County.

Alcoa officials advised that this is the last governmental action needed to enable them to start construction of this multi-million dollar aluminum plant.

Alcoa is not asking for full amortization of the plant in five years as the companies attorneys have advised such would be unwise since the company to build in Milam County not a temporary wartime endeavor but a permanent plant to carry over into peacetime and many years ahead.

Poage is soliciting plants in the aluminum fabricating field to tie in with the big plant which Aluminum Company of America will build with government sanction. It was also pointed out that when Alcoa and Texas Power and Light Company announced their joint enterprise in Milam County, it was and there would be a surplus of electric power generated there through burning lignite fuel.

When this happens, a wide variety of industries, it was anticipated, will gravitate to the area to take advantage of this cheap power.

Survey States WACS Like State Of Texas

At least one "furriner" in Texas agrees with the accepted Texan concept of the state. SFC Florence C. Hursh of Oklahoma City, Okla., whom the Texas Chamber of Commerce may be secretly plotting to hire, thinks Texas is tops.

An unofficial survey made recently among the WACS at Fort Sam Houston, Tex., disclosed Sergeant Hursh's love for the Lone Star State, "I've always heard that Texas is the biggest and the best and I've always wanted to be a part of that biggest and best—and now I am," she says.

"Texans are definitely interested in their state and do a good job of selling it.—But I haven't lost my love for Oklahoma," she adds, which might be explained to all good Texans by the fact that she has relatives still living in Oklahoma.

BY ANDY ANDERSON

I HAVE before me a rather unusual question about fishing. "Is the practice of spitting on the bait for luck a superstition, or does it actually help?"

WELL, actually the practice has become a superstition now, but once upon a time fishermen had a belief that the practice did help catch fish. That was away back when chewing tobacco was a general practice.

ALSO, most fishermen used live bait, particularly worms, in those days. Tobacco chewers used to spit on their bait, believing that the sting of the tobacco juice made the worm wiggle more and, by so doing, attracted more fish.

SINCE then, however, the practice is based on superstition. It is believed that a bait so treated will be a lucky bait. I'm sure all of you have seen fishermen spit on artificial lures, even if you have not done so yourself.

OUT OF THE BAIT BOX

So called Japanese gut is not cat gut as many fishermen believe. Back before the days of nylon leaders, gut was very scarce so the Japs figured out a means of twisting silk strands together and coating them with gelatin. They actually looked like real gut. The present day nylon leader is replacing cat gut leaders. In the old days a taper leader was made by knotting various sizes of gut together. Now it is possible to draw nylon through a machine so that it will be perfectly tapered. Actually gut leaders are not gut, but are the result of treating Viscous fluid exuded by silkworms. These silkworms fed on the white mulberry tree.

Charlie Gibson, new state commander of the American Legion, said Monday he will stump 14 Texas towns next week to urge passage of the proposed constitutional amendment to extend the veterans land program.

Gibson said he would open his tour in Texarkana, Sept. 17 and then visit Waskom, Linden, Atlanta, Marshall, New Boston, Clarksville, Hugh Springs, Daingerfield, Mount Pleasant, Sulphur Springs, Paris and Jefferson.

A Tribute-- To Our Policemen!

The uniformed man who walks his beat, ever ready to combat lurking danger, is an officer of the city, working for you. All through the stillness of the night... when homes are dark and stealth is on the prowl... your watchful Policeman is going his rounds. Smiling, rosy-cheeked, a mountain of security clad in blue, he shepherds the little children across the street. He is their friend, their protector, their laughing pal on occasion... and who of us would have it any other way! So let's be considerate and really warm-hearted toward our fine Policemen. The Cop, please remember, is one of our most dependable citizens!

Representatives Attend Meeting; 1951 School Calendar Announced

The Cameron School Board met in regular session Wednesday night, inviting trustees of the Curry School district and also former trustees of the dormant districts of Belmena, Vogelsang, and Walkers Creek, according to W. T. Hanes, superintendent.

Representatives of the Curry and Walkers Creek met with the board. There were requests made that the school buildings in these three dormant districts be retained for community houses.

There was legal action taken on the matter as such regulations and requirements will have to be complied with, concerning certain laws of the State Education Agency. There are certain legal steps that have to be taken on such matters.

Superintendent Hanes gave the annual report of school operations and the board has executed an excellent job on the amount of funds that has been appropriated.

Mr. Hanes gave a report on the attendance at the Ada Henderson and Yoe High Schools. Only 75 more pupils enrolled this year than in previous years. 347 enrolled at Yoe High and 541 at Ada Henderson.

DON'T let disease reduce your wheat yields

Here is a study in contrasts for every wheat grower. The sickly head of wheat at the left of this picture has been the victim of covered smut. The two large heads, from practically the same stand, show what the "runt" could have been, if it had not fallen victim to smut.

The smut-infested and healthy wheat grew in adjoining fields, under the same conditions of soil, water and sunshine. The two healthy heads, however, were grown from seed that was treated against smut before it was sown. The grower had his seed wheat treated with a fungus-killing dust that killed the smut spores and prevented them from infecting the growing wheat plants. The "runt" head did not have the benefit of treatment.

Fortunately, not all wheat is blighted by smut. Losses from this fungus disease are high enough, however, to more than justify fungicidal dusting of all seed wheat. Its small cost of one to five cents per acre is very cheap insurance against crop disappointments that can take many dollars out of the wheat grower's pocket.

Talk with your County Agent. He can direct you to a nearby seed cleaning and treating machine.

Five Men To Leave For Induction
From Milam County On November 7

The November Draft Call has been issued according to August G. Kunz, chairman of the Milam County Draft Board.

Five men have been called for this induction and will leave for the Dallas Recruiting Station on November 7.

This is the 14th call for men from Milam County since the Korean war and makes a total of 114 men drafted from this county since the beginning of the 1948 Draft Act.

The Selective Service System faced two main tasks when expansion of the Armed Forces began in the summer in 1950 shortly after the Korean conflict began according to Major General Lewis B. Hershey.

The first task was to assist in procurement of men necessary to bring the armed forces to the authorized strength. The second was to assist in the maintenance of the armed forces at the authorized strength.

October Draft Call
For Texas Increased

State Selective Service headquarters was notified today to increase the Texas draft call for October from 742 to 807 men, Brig. Gen. Paul L. Wakefield, state director of Selective Service, said.

Notification came by telegraph from national Selective Service headquarters.

"Our increase for October is only 65 men," General Wakefield commented, "and will be easily filled. We are ready for much bigger increases if the nation needs men."

The increase of 65 is the Texas share of a national increase of 3,660 men. Original October call for the nation was 41,000. Adjusted call is 44,660.

As a result of adjustment in the state call, 15 local boards in 11 Texas cities are scheduled to receive a slight adjustment in their October calls.

Boards to receive an increase are located in San Antonio, Ennis, Galveston, Baytown, Beaumont, Port Arthur, Lubbock, Waco, Bowie, Sweetwater, and Orange. Adjusted calls are scheduled to be mailed today by state headquarters.

General Wakefield explained that such a small increase in a call cannot be equitably divided among 137 local boards and that adjustments have to be made later.

"Receipt of small calls over a period of time becomes a series of adjustments and readjustments," the state draft director commented.
